GABRIELI
ROAR
REGIONAL CONCERT

LONDON YOUTH CHOIR – ROBBIE JACOBS, CONDUCTOR

“May the Gabrieli Consort & Players live forever in health and glory” The Times

For over 30 years Gabrieli and our Artistic Director Paul McCreesh have surprised, challenged and inspired audiences with world-renowned interpretations of great vocal and instrumental repertoire from the Renaissance to the present day. Gabrieli Roar, our unique choral training scheme, stands apart from other education projects by putting the inclusion of young singers at the heart of Gabrieli’s core activity. This is driven by Paul McCreesh’s desire to offer teenagers the opportunity to excel by performing side-by-side with our professional musicians.

We are delighted to be collaborating in March 2017 with Gabrieli Roar partners, the London Youth Choir (LYC), for a concert celebrating their flagship senior choir and Chamber Choir directed by Robbie Jacobs. These stunning young voices will be joined in the second half of the programme by soloists from the Gabrieli Consort and our period instrument orchestra directed by Paul McCreesh, for a performance of Haydn’s last major work, his exuberant Harmoniemesse.

The London Youth Choir is a family of five choirs, established in 2012 by Suzi Digby OBE and Rachel Staunton to provide singers living or educated within Greater London with an outstanding choral education through exceptional musical training and high-level performance opportunities. The choir’s vision is to inspire young people to achieve the highest possible standard in choral singing, musicianship and vocal production in a supportive and welcoming environment, whilst representing the city of London.
